Howard Willens on WRC-TV after 6:30 12/27/91 2nd That for there to have been a conspiracy conspirators have to be identified. Evidence can and in this crime does prove there was a conspiracy because it proves the crime could not have been committed by one man Willens, an experienced lawyer knows this and he knows that at least all the lawyers in the audience will know not be deceived and misled the audience, they should wonder why.

I do

Can it be that the Oliver Stone movie troubled him this much - and was that about the point is he is in because of his work on the commission?